An effective method for figuring out a value is to ship out a survey to your present customers. If these clients have already purchased an book from you, ask for their opinion when it comes to price. Do that by creating a gross sales web page for the brand new guide, but don't include a price on that page. Instead, add quite a few hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a value to your ebook.

One other strategy is to check out costs by creating a variety of duplicate sales pages with completely different costs on each page. Ensure that your sales copy is precisely the identical on every page, and includes your selling-handle sentence. Then figure out for every web page the conversion ratio between guests to your site and sales of your book. This can tell you what your optimum price is.
